

Competition manipulation is any attempt to control the outcome of a competition or alter the natural course of a sporting event, or part of it.

It can look like:

Result alteration Spot-fixing
Corruption Under-performing
Sharing inside information

Simple rules to follow

- 1 Don't bet on your own event or on any other competition within the sport of athletics where you are participating.
- 3 Don't share inside information with anyone. You never know how it could be used.
- 5 Always report an approach to manipulate a competition. Having knowledge but not reporting can lead to consequences.
- 7 Always cooperate with any investigation carried out by World Athletics or the AIU.

Don't manipulate a competition or fix a result. 2

Don't accept any undue benefits such as gifts, money, nights at a hotel, etc. 4

Always report anything suspicious if you believe it to be unethical. 6
