

MEMBERS OF THE INTEGRITY REVIEW PANEL

Role

Members will have significant experience in the field of integrity in sport.

The Panel will be responsible for recommending to the Head of the Integrity Unit (Head) the IAAF's integrity programme; for monitoring the programme; for deciding whether the IAAF should prosecute, appeal or otherwise act where there is an alleged non-doping violation of the Integrity Code of Conduct, and for providing input to the Integrity Unit Board and the Head on integrity matters (non-doping), where requested.

The Panel will comprise of up to 6 members, of which one member at least shall be a lawyer. Panel members will receive an annual fee and associated expenses will be met.

The initial Panel will be appointed for a term until September 2019.

A person may be appointed as a member of the Integrity Review Panel and the Anti-Doping Review Panel at the same time.

Responsibilities

Each member of the Integrity Review Panel shall have at least the following responsibilities:

- to act as a Panel member in the best interests of the integrity of the sport of Athletics with honesty and good faith;
- to play a full part in ensuring the Panel arrives at balanced and objective decisions in the performance of its agreed role and functions, including and especially:
 - providing input into the integrity elements of the strategic plan for the Integrity Unit;
 - developing and recommending the IAAF integrity programme to the Head;
 - deciding whether the IAAF will prosecute non-doping violations;
 - deciding whether the IAAF will appeal decisions of the Disciplinary Tribunal in an integrity (non-doping) case to CAS; or whether the IAAF will participate in appeals before CAS or before any other arbitral tribunal in an integrity (non-doping) case where the IAAF is not a party;
- to contribute to a positive and effective work environment within the Panel's mandate.

Personal Attributes

- A person of considerable integrity;

- Knowledge of and interest in competitive sport and the underlying values of fair play and good governance;
- Significant experience in the field of sport integrity, ethics and governance;
- Significant knowledge of integrity rules in sport (non-doping);
- Experience in the results management of integrity (non-doping) cases is mandatory for any lawyer applicant and beneficial for other applicants;
- Knowledge of the structure of international sport federations and related bodies in the international sport environment

Selection Process

The Integrity Unit Board will be responsible for appointing the members of the Panel following completion of the search and selection process.

How to Apply

Applications to the email address: applications.irp@athleticsintegrity.org must include the following:

- A full Curriculum Vitae
- Confidential contact details including address, telephone numbers and email address
- A letter of application highlighting your motivation for the role and addressing the key selection criteria
- Referees: full contact details of two referees.

Applications are welcomed from a full diverse range of candidates, regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, faith or disability.

Applications close on: 16th May 2017